Speakers:

Doug Hurley lives and works in New Zealand. Together with his wife and son, he operates a ministry by the name of Autumn Leaves. They serve with zeal in Australia, New Zealand, Papua New Guinea, and in other lands in the South Pacific to spread the Gospel. His messages will be based on the first epistle of John and will help us learn to know Jesus Christ personally.

Virginia Oden lives in Tennessee, USA and has a ministry by the name of House Calls across the World. She is a medical doctor and has worked six years at Wildwood Institute in Georgia, USA. She has much experience with teaching in the Bible's and the Spirit of Prophecy's health message. Through her work she has a burden to visit people at home in order to give counsel, instruct, and to help them with their needs. While she is here, Virginia is willing to give personal counsel and a personal lifestyle plan for your personal needs. (She receives donations for her time.)

Meetings for the children will also be held.

The collections that are taken up will be applied to the speakers' airline tickets, meeting costs, and mission work.

Each person is responsible to clean after himself (bed, room, cabin, building, etc) when leaving the place. We are thankful for your help with the cleaning.

We desire an environment in which each and all are able to grow spiritually and enjoy God's presence through the Holy Spirit. We desire that each participant comes with a willing heart—willing to give a blessing and to receive a blessing. Since it is a holy time, we ask also that each one considers the importance of clothing, food, entertainment, and other items that are brought to the camp.

The Faith That Works

“Do you believe that the end of all things is at hand, that the scenes of this earth's history are fast closing? If so, show your faith by your works. A man will show all the faith he has. Some think they have a good degree of faith, when if they have any, it is dead, for it is not sustained by works. "Faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone." Few have that genuine faith which works by love and purifies the soul. But all who are accounted worthy of everlasting life must obtain a moral fitness for the same. "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure." This is the work before you. . . .

“You must experience a death to self, and must live unto God. "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God." Self is not to be consulted. Pride, self-love, selfishness, avarice, covetousness, love of the world, hatred, suspicion, jealousy, evil surmisings, must all be subdued and sacrificed forever. When Christ shall appear, it will not be to correct these evils and then give a moral fitness for His coming. This preparation must all be made before He comes. It should be a subject of thought, of study, and earnest inquiry, What shall we do to be saved? What shall be our conduct that we may show ourselves approved of God?

“When tempted to murmur, censure, and indulge in fretfulness, wounding those around you, and in so doing wounding your own soul, oh! let the deep, earnest, anxious inquiry come from your soul, Shall I stand without fault before the throne of God? Only the faultless will be there. None will be translated to heaven while their hearts are filled with the rubbish of earth. Every defect in the moral character must first be remedied, every stain removed by the cleansing blood of Christ, and all the unlovely, unlovable traits of character overcome.” Maranatha, p. 58
