Speakers: David and Giovana Restrepo from Venezuela are the directors of Fundación Las Delicias near Barquisimeto, Venezuela, which was founded by David's father. The Foundation consists of a farm with gardens, health center, training programs, and a bakery. In Barquisimeto, Las Delicias operates a vegetarian restaurant, health food store, and a doctor's office. Giovana is a medical doctor and will be speaking on different diseases that are common in our world today. Pastor David will be preaching about living a Christian life in the twenty-first century.

Zita Kovacs, originally from Austria, has many years of experience as a medical missionary worker, teaching in several countries and helping many to achieve a better health through God's natural healing way. Joachim Broegaard is trained as a lifestyle educator and has taught various Bible and health subjects in many countries. Zita and Joachim are currently working together in Germany.

Meetings for the children will also be held.

The collections that are taken up during the meetings will be mainly used for the speakers' airline tickets, meeting costs, and for Stenshult.

You are welcome to arrive after 14:00 on Monday afternoon. The first meeting begins Monday evening at 19:30. Each person is responsible to clean after himself (bed, room, cabin, building, etc) when leaving the place. We are thankful for your help with the cleaning.

We desire an environment in which each and all are able to grow spiritually and enjoy God's presence through the Holy Spirit. We desire that each participant comes with a willing heart—willing to give a blessing and to receive a blessing. Since it is a holy time, we ask also that each one considers the importance of his behavior, clothing, food, entertainment, and other items that are brought to the camp.

Another Pentecost Coming!

“Under the figure of the early and the latter rain, that falls in Eastern lands at seedtime and harvest, the Hebrew prophets foretold the bestowal of spiritual grace in extraordinary measure upon God's church. The outpouring of the Spirit in the days of the apostles was the beginning of the early, or former, rain, and glorious was the result. . . . But near the close of earth's harvest, a special bestowal of spiritual grace is promised to prepare the church for the coming of the Son of man. This outpouring of the Spirit is likened to the falling of the latter rain.

The great work of the gospel is not to close with less manifestation of the power of God than marked its opening. The prophecies which were fulfilled in the outpouring of the former rain at the opening of the gospel are again to be fulfilled in the latter rain at its close. . . .

Servants of God, with their faces lighted up and shining with holy consecration, will hasten from place to place to proclaim the message from heaven. By thousands of voices, all over the earth, the warning will be given. Miracles will be wrought, the sick will be healed, and signs and wonders will follow the believers. Satan also works with lying wonders, even bringing down fire from heaven in the sight of men. Revelation 13:13. Thus the inhabitants of the earth will be brought to take their stand.

The message will be carried not so much by argument as by the deep conviction of the Spirit of God. The arguments have been presented. The seed has been sown, and now it will spring up and bear fruit. . . . Now the rays of light penetrate everywhere, the truth is seen in its clearness, and the honest children of God sever the bands which have held them. Family connections, church relations, are powerless to stay them now. Truth is more precious than all besides. Notwithstanding the agencies combined against the truth, a large number take their stand upon the Lord's side.”
